8. Preliminary discussions between OC and Senior Managers from the Office of Personnel (OP) were held on 17 September in preparation for a briefing on the OC experience with the Experimental Pay System to be presented to the staff of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. The feeling prevails that this briefing could be significant in obtaining further congressional support to band other occupations within the Agency.

9. In an effort to develop recruitment initiatives that could potentially benefit OC and OIT, OC has extended an invitation to have OIT representatives accompany OC recruiters on future selected recruiting trips. This initiative will then be evaluated by both Offices and expanded or curtailed as appropriate.

10. A lesson plan on the fundamental elements of a communications security program was developed by OC during the reporting period in support of a requirement levied by the
